

Literacy Coaching Menu

Choose from a variety of options. Mix and match to design a meal that appeals to you.
Note: All dishes are free (but chocolate will be accepted as payment).

Appetizers

Resources – Assist in finding literacy resources and making use of them

Conversations – Identify issues and needs, set goals, and problem solve

Lesson Plans – Co-plan a lesson or series of lessons utilizing best practices

Instructional Strategies – Explore research-based teaching ideas that work with many students

Differentiation Support – Help design and adapt lessons, activities, and assessments

Main Entrées

Model Lesson – Teach lesson with observation by the classroom teacher
*includes co-planning and reflection

Team Teaching Experience – Plan cooperatively and teach a lesson together

Classroom Observation – Visit classrooms together to observe other teachers

Data Conversation – Collaboratively analyze data, including student work, to make instructional decisions

Desserts

Reflection – Reflect on student learning and teaching through conversation and observation

Partnerships – Provide opportunities to connect with other grade level teachers throughout the district

Brainstorming Session – Bounce innovative ideas off one another

District Liaison - Share current information for staff development, curriculum updates, and professional learning opportunities (state, district and local level)

If there is something that you are craving, but you don't see it on the menu? Order it anyway. This chef is willing to cook up new creations as needed!

WARNING: The chef is NOT an expert, but does gather a wide range of ingredients and serving suggestions from other customers!